

Drug Information Residency

Center for Drug Information & Evidence-Based Practice

<http://druginfo.creighton.edu>

Learn from Leaders

- ▶ Cutting edge drug information service
- ▶ Leaders in drug information practice
- ▶ Nationally recognized program faculty

Benefits

- ▶ Flexibility to pursue interests
- ▶ Highly marketable skill development
- ▶ Academic faculty appointment

Areas of expertise

- ▶ Evidence-based medicine
- ▶ Managed care & policy development
- ▶ Acute care and internal medicine
- ▶ Dietary supplements & natural products
- ▶ Formulary support & management
- ▶ Teaching & academic experience
- ▶ Medical writing & publishing

Opportunities

- ▶ Broad exposure to practice settings
- ▶ Tertiary medical center affiliation
- ▶ Managed care affiliation
- ▶ Entrepreneurial activities & contract development
- ▶ Post-graduate certificates available
 - Evidence-based practice
 - Teaching
 - Technology

To apply, or for more information contact:

Philip Gregory, PharmD
Assistant Professor, Pharmacy Practice
Coordinator, Drug Information Residency Program
Creighton University
2500 California Plaza
Omaha, NE 68178
Phone: 402-280-5118
Fax: 402-280-5149
Email: pgregory@creighton.edu

Program Faculty:

Amy Friedman Wilson, Pharm.D., Director, Center for Drug Information & Evidence-Based Practice
Philip J. Gregory, Pharm.D., Coordinator, Drug Information Residency Program
Anne L. Bruckner, Pharm.D., Drug Information Specialist
Nancy L. Fagan, Pharm.D., Immanuel Medical Center Drug Information Service
Cathy L. Bartels, Pharm.D., Children's Hospital Pediatric Drug Information Service

